Town Mayor's Charity Fine Dining Experience with Theo Michaels

The Town Mayor, Councillor Brian Ellis held a delightful fine dining experience with Theo Michaels in Park Hall on Friday 9 October in aid of his nominated charities 'The Harpenden Trust' and 'Southdown Play Areas Working Group'.

Theo prepared a delicious 5-course meal, starting with amaretto prawns and finalising in a dense chocolate tarte with pecan and honey ice cream and a wild berry coulis. The meals were beautifully presented and certainly displayed the skills of a 'master chef'.

Aquabatics bubble tubes, kindly provided by a local company, gave a lovely ambience to the evening.

Some superb prizes had been donated for the event, which included a voucher for four to a Saracens match, a four-ball voucher at Aldwickbury Park Golf Club and a golden ticket to the Roald Dahl museum. And, Theo Michaels most generously offered a voucher for a fine dining experience in 2016, which was auctioned at the end of the evening.

The Town Mayor said 'Thank you to everyone who supported the event. It was a great success in several ways as it was a lovely evening, raising funds for two local charities, and also linked in really well with the Harpenden Food and Drink Festival at the end of September, which was such a huge success this year and brought many people into the Town.'

The evening was a great success and will have raised over £1000 to be shared between the two charities.
